NARRATIVE

On or about July 2013 Sergeant Stobie and I discussed the possibility that I may carry the smaller Glock firearm being held in the armory. I, however, never took possession of the weapon as represented in Sergeant Stobie's report. I never went to the range and shot the firearm or qualified with the firearm to enable myself to carry the firearm.

On several occasions in June 2017, I had asked Sergeant Stobie to write a report for the missing firearm. On one occasion, while talking to Sergeant Stobie in his office about the missing firearm Sergeant Stobie said "I don't know where the gun is". I therefore asked Sergeant Stobie to report the gun as being stolen or missing. The report was not filed in June when requested and Sergeant Stobie went on vacation from June 15 to June 24, 2017.

When Sergeant Stobie returned to work he wrote a report for the missing Glock firearm on July 26, 2017.
